The Film Sensation Bringing Hope to People Across the Planet.

This Sacred Earth: The 2012 Phenomenon is a documentary that uses the 2012 prophecies as a way to ask and explore how we can fall back in love with Mother Earth to save both ourselves and the planet.

Billie Dean and Andrew Einspruch imbue yet another film with their trademark lightness of spirit, love of beauty and reverence for the natural world. From their belief that a disconnection from nature is at the root cause of our planetary crisis, the film asks wisdom keepers from around the globe what each one of us can do to ensure the 2012 indigenous prophecy of a millennium of peace becomes a reality.

Uplifting, inspiring, entertaining and loaded with down-to-earth wisdom, this is a documentary that replaces fear, doubt and uncertainty with love and excitement about the future. It could be the most important film you will see this year.

See a range of 17 researchers, shamans, academics and keepers of sacred knowledge spanning three continents who share a positive and proactive vision for all life: William Bloom, Dolores Cannon, John Cantwell, Philip Carr-Gomm, Lucy Cavendish, Andras Corben-Arthen, Billie Dean, Haleaka Iolani Pule Dooley, Paola Harris, Anne Hassett, Minmia, Janet Ossebaard, Geo Athena Trevarthen, Alberto Villoldo, Karen Ward, Robert Wakeley Wheeler, Angelika Whitecliff.

Join us for a very inspiring and informative evening that invites us to consider that the 2012 phenomenon is less about shifts in tectonic plates and more about shifts in consciousness.

"This Sacred Earth: The 2012 Phenomenon is a must-see film for anyone who needs a good dollop of hope about the planet, 2012 or themselves. There's a lot of soul food and wisdom here to launch us into a new era of peace. This film won a standing ovation at the Perth 2009 Conscious Living 2012 New Earth Festival because it is a heart- and hope-filled delight and changes people from the first frames."
